(By United Press)
Senate: Tax bill formally presented by finance committee. Finance committee takes up bonus bill. Daugherty investigation continues. House: Bloom-Chandler election contest.

Washington, April 10.—The bonus bill was taken out of its pigeon hole today to be rushed through the senate.

Republicans are agreed upon the bill as it was brought from the house and prospects are that the senate finance committee may report it out immediately.

Little discussion is in prospect in the special bonus committee meeting called by Chairman Smoot for this morning, as both sides are agreed the bonus should be shot through before the tax bill is taken up. The only important items concerning the bonus which is to be inspected by the committee consist of various estimates of government experts who vary by billions of dollars as to what the bonus will cost.

The lowest estimate is $2,119,000, 000 by the veterans' bureau accountants while the treasury department thinks the bill will cost in its present form $4,850,000,000.

If present plans are carried out the bonus bill will be laid on the desk of President Coolidge within two weeks, accompanied by a challenge from congress that he can veto it if he dares.

If Mr. Coolidge vetoes the bill, the bonus bloc will rush it back before congress and attempt to get the necessary two-thirds majority for final passage, a majority which at this time they are confident of obtaining.

DEMOCRATS WORK FOR DELAYING BILL

Washington, April 10.—Democrats on the senate finance committee today obtained a delay in consideration of the bonus bill, which may forestall efforts of republican bonus advocates to have it taken up by the senate before the tax bill.

Pleading that they needed more time to study the measure, the democrats asked and obtained a postponement of the committee's action on the measure until Saturday.

While the bill may be rushed out then and still be placed ahead of the tax bill, democrats are inclined to protest against any such move.

TO EXAMINE MAL DAUGHERTY BANK

Washington, April 10.—Chairman Brookhart and Senator Wheeler, Montana, of the senate Daugherty investigating committee will leave tonight for Washington Court House, Ohio, to examine the books of the Midland National bank of which Mal Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general, is president.

Brookhart made the announcement today after an executive session of the committee.

NEW MELLON TAX BILL UP

Washington, April 10.—The new Mellon tax bill was formally presented to the senate today.

Chairman Smoot of the finance committee reported out the bill and its provisions were made officially public.

While the income tax, surtax and inheritance tax provisions are not expected to survive the senate, republicans are prepared to fight hard for them in order to obtain the best possible compromise.

Smoot announced that the bill

BELLE FOURCHE RIVER DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN FLOOD

(By United Press)
Belle Fourche, S. D., April 10.—Half a dozen houses have been swept away and a score more flooded in the river bottoms here where the Belle Fourche river stands at the highest flood stage in history.

Twenty-five families are homeless and destitute. They are being cared for by sympathetic citizens.

The river was three feet above the previous high water mark today, but the crest of the flood is believed to have been reached.

River bridges were endangered by the accumulation of debris and the pressure of the onrushing flood. Dynamite has been used to clear the debris from in front of one of the bridges. Officials felt some concern for the dam a mile from town. No fatalities were reported.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY TO TAKE UP OIL SCANDAL

(By United Press)
Washington, April 10.—Actual presentation of evidence before the federal grand jury called to investigate alleged criminal conspiracy in connection with the oil scandal will begin April 16, government counsel announced today.

Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts in charge of the case for the government have completed their case for presentation to the jury, it was learned. A long list of witnesses will be called.

Washington, April 10.—Radio companies, charged by the federal trade commission with combination and conspiracy in restraint of competition in the radio industry, today filed their answers with the commission, making general denial of the charges and asserting the commission has no jurisdiction in the case.

would be taken up for debate "early next week."

INDICTMENT BASED ON A TELEGRAM

Great Falls, Montana, April 10.—Indictment of Senator Wheeler was based partly on a telegram from Washington to Gordon Campbell, oil operator, stating that the senator had just appeared before the department of the interior with reference to oil matters, a federal district court official here declared today.

He stated that a letter along similar lines was in possession of the prosecution.

STONE TO INQUIRE INTO INDICTMENT

Washington, April 10.—President Coolidge will ask Attorney General Stone to make an immediate inquiry into the indictment returned against Senator Wheeler, Montana, by a Great Falls grand jury, the United Press learned today.

If he finds the evidence insufficient to warrant court action, Mr. Coolidge will ask Stone to have the indictment quashed immediately.

If, on the other hand, the president finds there is real ground for the indictment, he will make immediate prosecution.

REPARATION PROBLEM MAY NEAR SOLUTION

NO DEFINITE TOTAL REPARA-
GIVEN

GENERAL DAWES DID NOT TRY TO FIX SUCH A TOTAL

(By United Press)
Washington, April 10.—With strong opposition certain to be made to it, the Dawes report stands better than an even chance to effect a final settlement of the reparations problem, official and diplomatic Washington believed today.

The principal objections expected is that the report does not recommend a definite total reparations figure, a fact to which Germany already has objected.

Reparations the Reich now is under obligation to pay total one hundred thirty-two billion gold marks.

An effort may be made to make it appear that under the proposals of Secretary of State Hughes which brought about the Dawes inquiry, the experts were obligated to state a total figure.

The reason the experts report did not deal with a total sum is that General Dawes found at the start that to try to fix a total would wreck the inquiry.

GERMANY STATES OBJECTIONS TO REPORT

Berlin, April 10.—Germany was busy today giving reasons why the Dawes report should not be accepted. Three main objections voiced in government circles were:

1. A definite total reparations sum should be fixed so that Germany might have a mark to shoot at.

2. France and Belgium should be required to take their troops out of the Ruhr.

3. Practically the various sums demanded should be reduced.

FRANCE NOT ENTIRELY SUITED

Paris, April 10.—While the reparations commission studies the experts' report, France keeps pace with Germany in objecting to the proposal. The old familiar game of European politics already is being played with this effort of international businessmen.

The Dawes plan was based upon co-operation and restored confidence. The principal French objection voiced by the press today was that:

1. Moral guarantees were valueless as far as Germany was concerned.

2. The Germans could not be trusted to carry out the reparations recommendations even if they formally accepted them.

The French expect international negotiations lasting several months.

TAKE MONTH FOR DECISION

JUDGE CANT HEARS ARGUMENTS
ON IRON ORE ROYALTY
TAX LAW

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 10.—There will be at least a month before Judge William A. Cant can give a decision in the test case of the constitutionality of the state iron ore royalty tax law.

Closing arguments have been heard and the court allowed petitioners by an injunction 10 days in which to file a brief. After that the state will have 10 days to file an answer and the ore companies will have another 10 days in which to file a reply.

When a decision is finally rendered the case will be appealed to the United States supreme court for final settlement.

HI JOHNSON FULL OF OPTIMISM IN SPITE OF DEFEATS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 10.—"The campaign will continue," said George Henry Payne, eastern campaign manager for Senator Hiram Johnson, on his arrival here to confer with Johnson.

"I am here to confer with the senator about the New Jersey campaign."

"I arranged for this conference some time ago. There are no others of the Johnson managers here and none are coming."

At Johnson's office it was intimated the senator might later make a statement regarding rumors that his defeats in Michigan, Illinois and elsewhere would cause his early withdrawal from the presidential race.

(By United Press)
Omaha, Neb., April 10.—President Coolidge's lead over Senator Hiram Johnson in Tuesday's primary election has passed the 30,000 mark with all but slightly less than 200 precincts to be heard from.

The vote in 1776 out of the state's 1936 precincts was:

Coolidge, 75,438; Johnson, 44,201.

Latest returns show that Adam McMullen of Beatrice will win the republican gubernatorial contest over his chief rival, A. N. Mathers, by about 15,000 votes.

Du Quoin, Ill., April 10.—Eighteen miners were injured, some perhaps fatally, when the cage in which they were being lowered into the Kathleen mine of the United Collieries company, St. Louis, five miles from here, dropped 50 feet to the bottom of the shaft today.

The accident is attributed to the blowout of the safety fuse on an electric hoist and the failure of the "safety dogs" to hold the hoisting drum.

STATE SENATOR BREAKS TRAFFIC LAW; ARRESTED

Minneapolis, April 10.—State Senator C. F. Serline, of Mora, was arrested in the loop last night charged with disregarding a traffic signal.

Serline refused to accept a traffic tag calling for his appearance at police headquarters this morning, according to Patrolman Vollum and he was taken to the station. He was released on $5 bail.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH NEAR MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, April 10.—Authorities today tried to solve the mystery of the death of Herman Moseman, Lake City. His body was found on the outskirts of the city late yesterday with a bullet hole in his head. The body was taken to the Anoka county morgue.

Papers in the pockets identified him as Moseman of the Red Wing Nursery company, Lake City. No motive for suicide is known.

AID GIVEN THE BRAINERD GUN CLUB SHOOT

BIDS TO BE MADE FOR U. C. T., ELKS AND LIONS CON-VENTIONS

JACOBSON BROTHERS SEND A TELEGRAM ON HOTEL
PROPOSITION

The Chamber of Commerce last night started a drive for conventions. This included assisting in financing the Brainerd Gun club shoot of June 9, inquiring as to the status of the Disabled War Veterans' convention, and making bids for the 1925 conventions of the United Commercial Travelers of America, Elks and Lions.

The Hotel Proposition

Those who attended the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening were disappointed in not being able to hear a representative from Jacobson Brothers, contractors of Duluth, who had tentatively promised to appear before the meeting and speak on the new hotel proposition. In a telegram to the Chamber, Jacobson Brothers stated their regrets at not being able to be present, and repeated their offer of erecting a modern hotel building to cost approximately $225,000, if Brainerd could raise $45,000 and a site.

Perry Williams, assistant to the president of the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association, and formerly manager of the Minneapolis Journal tourist and resort information bureau, had expected to be present at the Chamber meeting, but at the last minute found it impossible to attend.

Mr. Williams, in a letter stated: "Minneapolis feels that the tourist business has a direct and most important bearing on the future development of the state. This city subscribes heartily to the theory that in itself it can be nothing but grow into the great position which every city of spirit holds up before itself without it has a prosperous territory surrounding it. Further it must have the good will and trust of that territory. Just now Minneapolis is more concerned if anything in its neighbors than in itself."

"You well know the attitude we have toward the tourist business. We believe the surface hardly has been scratched. In connection with it we see two outstanding features. First, the money left by the tourists in Minnesota is in the shape of spot cash; second, this cash comes to us in the important period between seeding and harvest. No section can go further than its natural resources of this territory and some of them we have entirely used up, if not permanently, at least for a long period of time. This is particularly true of the lumber industry, speaking in a large way."

Scenery a Natural Resource

"It is interesting to note that the tourist industry draws on a natural resource that is never exhausted—scenery. All it requires is judicious advertising and publicity efforts to attract them, with proper treatment and information service accorded everywhere they go in Minnesota. There is no question but that one of the first fruits of the growth of this industry will be a big development in the construction of hotel and resort properties."

"Compared to our eventual opportunity, Minnesota is entertaining a mere handful of tourists annually. In the not distant future this cash summer crop should amount to $100,000,000, left here by one million tourists who will go away satisfied customers. Many will make permanent investments here. Many will send their friends to visit here and many others will return to live here. The potentialities of the influx of the tourists are inestimable. There is at this date a possibility of 9,000,

New York, April 10.—Father bring home a bag of peanuts to-night and mother—make some pink lemonade. The circus is coming to your town over the radio.

All the sounds, including those of the side shows, go on the air from stations WJZ and WGY promptly at 6:15 p. m.

There will be the roar of the great cats, the bark of the seals, the crack of the ringmaster's whip and the tinnabulation from the elephants' howdah. Those who listen closely and tune sharply, will catch the swish of grass as the Hula girls sway and hear the soft thump of gilded hoofs on the sawdust. Everything will be broadcast except the smell of the camels.

COOLIDGE HAS 125,000 LEAD OVER JOHNSON

COOLIDGE PLURALITY IN ILLINOIS KEEPS AUGMENT-
ING

INTEREST NOW CENTERS ON RE-PUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR SENATOR

(By United Press)
Chicago, April 10.—With President Coolidge's plurality over Senator Hiram Johnson in the Illinois primaries by approximately 125,000 votes, interest today centered on the neck and neck race for the republican nomination for senator between Senator McCormick and Charles Deneen, former governor.

Deneen is leading by approximately 4,500 votes in the count from 5,943 of the state's 5,668 precincts.

The count: Deneen, 321,870; McCormick, 317,482.

The Coolidge managers were claiming that the president now has at least 530 delegates to the national convention and that before the rest of the primaries are over he will have more than the number required for the choice—555.

The present standing is: Coolidge 530 delegates, LaFollette 28 and Johnson 13.

600 tourists from the Mississippi Valley states by automobile alone, not including the large groups that come through the excellent co-operation of the railroads, who expend large sums annually in advertising this section.

"To view the automobile tourist situation on a national basis, it need only be pointed out that more than 30,000,000 people, one-third of the population of the United States, have their own vehicles of transportation. Add to these the enormous numbers that could be hauled in by rail, and we begin to get a smattering of an idea of the tremendous growth we may expect."

Brainerd is Fortunate

"Minnesota is on the highway to success through the development of the tourist industry regardless of the conditions of any other field of business endeavor. The excellent part about it all is that so great an overwhelming portion of it is spread throughout the state rather than in the city centers. Brainerd is fortunate, standing at the edge of such a great lake territory and may well look to a great future as a center where the tourists will come to establish their touring headquarters while they visit various portions of the state by rail and machine."

"The Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association believes in the value of this work to the extent that thirty cents on every dollar it re-

TELLS SENATE HOW HE EM-

REPLIES TO CHARGE MADE THAT HE DEFRAUDED THE INDIANS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 10.—George L. Miller, one of the owners of the Miller Brothers 101 ranch in Oklahoma, admitted before the senate Daugherty investigating committee today that he employed John E. Todd, former law partner of Harry M. Daugherty, "to get his case before the attorney general."

The committee dug further into alleged inactivity of the department of justice in prosecuting the Miller Brothers for return of Indian lands valued at $500,000 which it is charged they obtained by fraudulent means.

Miller admitted pleading guilty to charges of defrauding Indians out of lands and declared that he would have paid "anything" to get his case before Attorney General Daugherty.

Miller said he pleaded guilty "because he had an understanding that he was to pay a fine and not go to jail."

"You had that understanding with the attorney general?" asked Wheeler.

"No, I think it was between my attorney and Mr. Pec k, federal district attorney in Oklahoma at that time."

"Did Todd ever get your case before the attorney general?"

"I don't think so."

Miller denied ever giving any money to the republican national committee or to J. J. McGraw, republican national committeeman of Oklahoma.

"Did you have McGraw telephone to Senator Herrell and ask if it would be all right for you to pay a fine of $10,000?"

"McGraw did things for me that I knew nothing of."

"Who did your attorney tell you that he had an understanding with about you getting off with a fine?"

"As far as I know my attorney conferred with Herbert M. Peck, special prosecutor in the case; a Mr. Taylor, a Mr. Lynn and the judge."

Berlin, April 10.—Hugo Stinnes, fighting for his life, survived the night.

The German money master, who is believed dying after successive gall stone operations, was delirious a good bit of the time. He babbled of gigantic financial transactions while the markets in Germany were in a panicky state because of his illness. Stinnes' son reported his father's condition was "slightly improved," but the industrialist is still in danger. His fever is high.

WHOLE CIRCUS TO BE BROADCAST ON WJZ AND WGY

(By United Press)
New York, April 10.—Father bring home a bag of peanuts to night and mother—make some pink lemonade. The circus is coming to your town over the radio.

All the sounds, including those of the side shows, go on the air from stations WJZ and WGY promptly at 6:15 p. m.

There will be the roar of the great cats, the bark of the seals, the crack of the ringmaster's whip and the tinnitulation from the elephants' howdah. Those who listen closely and tune sharply, will catch the swish of grass as the Hula girls sway and hear the soft thump of gilded hools on the sawdust. Everything will be broadcast except the smell of the camels.

COOLIDGE HAS 125,000 LEAD OVER JOHNSON

COOLIDGE PLURALITY IN ILLINOIS KEEPS AUGMENTING

INTEREST NOW CENTERS ON REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR SENATOR

(By United Press)

Chicago, April 10.—With President Coolidge's plurality over Senator Hiram Johnson in the Illinois primaries by approximately 125,000 votes, interest today centered on the neck and neck race for the republican nomination for senator between Senator McCormick and Charles Deneen, former governor.

Deneen is leading by approximately 4,500 votes in the count from 5,043 of the state's 5,668 precincts.

The count: Deneen, 321,870; McCormick, 317,482.

The Coolidge managers were claiming that the president now has at least 530 delegates to the national convention and that before the rest of the primaries are over he will have more than the number required for the choice—555.

The present standing is: Coolidge 530 delegates, LaFollette 28 and Johnson 13.

600 tourists from the Mississippi Valley states by automobile alone, not including the large groups that come through the excellent co-operation of the railroads, who expend large sums annually in advertising this section.

"To view the automobile tourist situation on a national basis, it need only be pointed out that more than 30,000,000 people, one-third of the population of the United States, have their own vehicles of transportation. Add to these the enormous numbers that could be hauled in by rail, and we begin to get a smattering of an idea of the tremendous growth we may expect."

Brainerd is Fortunate

"Minnesota is on the highway to success through the development of the tourist industry regardless of the conditions of any other field of business endeavor. The excellent part about it all is that so great an overwhelming portion of it is spread throughout the state rather than in the city centers. Brainerd is fortunate, standing at the edge of such a great lake territory and may well look to a great future as a center where the tourists will come to establish their touring headquarters while they visit various portions of the state by rail and machine."

"The Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association believes in the value of this work to the extent that thirty cents on every dollar it re-

GEO. MILLER OF 101 RANCH IN TESTIMONY

TELLS SENATE HOW HE EMPLOYED JOHN E. TODD

REPLIES TO CHARGE MADE THAT HE FRAUDULENTLY THE INDIANS

(By United Press)

Washington, April 10.—George L. Miller, one of the owners of the Miller Brothers 101 ranch in Oklahoma, admitted before the senate Daugherty investigating committee today that he employed John E. Todd, former law partner of Harry M. Daugherty, "to get his case before the attorney general."

The committee dug further into alleged inactivity of the department of justice in prosecuting the Miller Brothers for return of Indian lands valued at $500,000 which it is charged they obtained by fraudulent means.

Miller admitted pleading guilty to charges of defrauding Indians out of lands and declared that he would have paid "anything" to get his case before Attorney General Daugherty.

Miller said he pleaded guilty "because he had an understanding that he was to pay a fine and not go to jail."

"You had that understanding with the attorney general?" asked Wheeler.

"No, I think it was between my attorney and Mr. Pec K, federal district attorney in Oklahoma at that time."

"Did Todd ever get your case before the attorney general?"

"I don't think so."

Miller denied ever giving any money to the republican national committee or to J. J. McGraw, republican national committeeman of Oklahoma.

"Did you have McGraw telephone to Senator Herreld and ask if it would be all right for you to pay a fine of $10,000?"

"McGraw did things for me that I knew nothing of."

FOUR FLIGHT PLANES HOP OFF FOR SITKA

(By United Press)
Prince Rupert, B. C., April 10.—The American round the world airplane fliers were under way again today. At 3:22 a. m. the four planes, headed by Major Frederick L. Martin, hopped off from Prince Rupert for Sitka, Alaska. They expect to reach Sitka this afternoon.

STINNES HAS A HIGH FEVER

GERMAN INDUSTRIALIST PRINCE SURVIVES THE NIGHT

(By United Press)

Berlin, April 10.—Hugo Stinnes, fighting for his life, survived the night.

The German money master, who is believed dying after successive gall stone operations, was delirious a good bit of the time. He babbed of gigantic financial transactions while the markets in Germany were in a panicky state because of his illness. Stinnes' son reported his father's condition was "slightly improved," but the industrialist is still in danger. His fever is high.

Two physicians are in constant attendance and two or more members of the family are always at the bedside.

ceives this year will be spent in the development of this effort."

Convention Possibilities

The chairman of the publicity and convention committee made a very comprehensive report on convention possibilities during the coming season. The first is the annual registered shoot of the Brainerd Gun club, which takes place on June 9, just preceding the state tournament at Breezy Point. It is expected that such a large number will attend the local event that it will take on convention proportions.

On motion the Chamber will donate $75 to the Brainerd Gun club to assist in meeting the expenses of the shoot and in giving it proper publicity.

One of the big convention possibilities for the city, it was pointed out, is the annual convention of the United Commercial Travelers of the grand council of Minnesota and North Dakota. The Brainerd council will have representatives at the convention in June, held in Albert Lea, to ask for the 1925 convention. If it is secured, Brainerd will benefit by a year's advertising on all correspondence sent out by the grand council.

The Elks at the 1923 state convention in Hibbing, broached the subject of Brainerd as the convention city for that order in 1925, and if sufficient backing is secured, it may be possible to bring this gathering to Brainerd next year. This convention, through its local lodge entertaining, will receive some $500 state Elk association aid.

The Disabled War Veterans, in convention at Winona last year, asked to meet in Brainerd and telegrams did not reach the convention in time for its reply and no action was taken by the executive committee. If the Chamber wishes it, correspondence will be carried on to see if they wish to meet in Brainerd this year.

The Lions club has considered the matter of extending an invitation to the Lions district convention to visit Brainerd in 1925. The conference this year is at Sioux Falls, S. D. Last year it was held at Faribault.

The Brainerd Rotary club could have had the district convention which is to be held in Bismarck, N. D., this month, but felt nonplussed to find hall space for the business sessions. The entertaining club gets some financial assistance from these conventions, as the Rotary members are assessed for the convention expenses.

The committee's report stated that the essentials in securing conventions are the backing of the Chamber and citizens in meeting the necessary expenses, hotel accommodations and adequate hall space for business sessions, plus outdoor enjoyment to advertise the local lake and other resources.

On motion the Chamber extended to the state association of Minnesota Elks and the United Commercial Travelers of America an invitation to hold their 1925 conventions in Brainerd, and that correspondence be entered into with the local chapter of the Disabled War Veterans in regard to their meeting this year, in the hope of entertaining the state convention. The local Lions club, on motion carried, was also assured the assistance and co-operation of the Chamber, if the 1925 district convention should be secured for Brainerd.

Map Mention Secured

It was brought out that Captain W. H. Fawcett, in his extensive advertising literature sent out relative to Breezy Point, carries a map which gives as much prominence to the inland passage short road, Brainerd, Merrifield to Big Pelican lake, as it does to the Brainerd, Pequot resort road. Capt. Fawcett stated that he is arranging quite a celebration for the opening day, May 30th, for the Breezy Point resort, when a dinner dance, at reasonable cost, will be given. The Chamber will be extended an invitation to attend.

Broom Making Industry

Carl Wright, chairman of the industrial promotion committee, stated that the broom-making industry has been investigated by the committee and that it was found that a man living some three miles from the city, who is a broom-maker, has told the committee that the only reason he could not compete with large manufacturing concerns, was that he could not afford to buy his stock in large quantities when materials were cheap. He stated it would require about $5,000 to establish a modern plant, without which nothing could be done.

Dairy Sires

S. R. Adair, chairman of the special committee on furnishing dairy sires to the farmers of the county, reported that the committee is now sure of sufficient funds to purchase twenty-five sires at least. The committee was given further time to complete its work.

Pickle Contracts

County Agent E. G. Roth reported that 159 acres has been secured under contract for cucumber raising, and that more contracts would be accepted. It was announced that a luncheon for the farmers would be given on May 15th by the Chamber, to which several merchants have promised to donate. On this day seed and instructions will be delivered to the farmers who have signed contracts for cucumber raising.

Carl Wright brought up the matter of the Boy Scouts maintaining an information booth on the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, and on motion this matter was referred to the city planning committee for its recommendation.

Cinosam Club

A letter was read from B. W. Wilder, stating that at a meeting in January he was elected president of the Cinosam club, of Gull lake, and that he is very much interested in seeing that the club expands as rapidly as possible. He is now making arrangements to erect a club house and other club buildings to be completed this summer, and is adopting the policy of favoring the Brainerd merchants and business men in every respect in connection with the buying of materials and supplies for the club, and further will have a grounds manager employed, who resides in Brainerd.

ANOTHER FACTOR IN TOWN DEVELOPMENT

THERE is another factor in town development, which in the "Buy at Home" movement includes the trade of women of a city, something which amounts to quite a large total. The difficult part in the consideration of this phase of trading is that the average husband finds it a matter of considerable diplomacy when he attempts to tell his wife what to do in purchasing her personal wardrobe.

It is an important item of home trading, that the whole household be made loyal to a city. The Dispatch gives publicity to this question by revealing the observations of one qualified to speak on women's trade.

A saleswoman, who has served the women of Brainerd in that capacity for several years, was discussing the present business situation and said among other things:

"I simply cannot understand why so many Brainerd women look at what Brainerd stores offer but go to the cities and make their purchases. Men talk about doing things to make Brainerd bigger and better, but the wives of many of them take enough business out of town to make all stores prosperous.

"I watch too, to see what they buy and I cannot see where they improve on what the stores of Brainerd offer to them.

"Why should the wife or daughter of any man who makes his living in Brainerd go to the cities to spend the money which Brainerd produces? They seem mighty disloyal to me. We stand here and wait, our boss is harassed to meet his bills and yet the business which would make us happy and prosperous is sent out of town.

"They say women don't know much about business but I am thinking that the stores Brainerd has should at least be given an opportunity to sell these people what they want before they send their Brainerd earned money out of town. Why, the last customer I waited on told me of the many women on her street who went to the cities to buy their coats and hats this year—many of them merchants' wives too at that.

"Maybe I am wrong, but it ought to be a matter for an apology for a woman to say, 'I got it in the cities.' I don't wonder that the boss is discouraged for he certainly has the right styles and the prices are right and other stores have good things too.

"No, I don't mind if you put what I've said in the paper, but don't tell who I am. I like these women but they are making such a mistake. I wouldn't say what I have said but women don't realize how much it costs Brainerd to have them talk about 'shopping in the cities,' and too I notice that it is the earnings of the Brainerd business men which are liberally subscribed for Boy Scouts, better cattle, tourist camp and other things which makes Brainerd better. Out of town merchants don't do it for us. Then, too, I notice that it's Brainerd business men who get out and hustle to put across the things which make us proud of Brainerd. Surely these men should have the support of all."

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE?

THE tragedy in St. Cloud Sunday, costing the life of a fine young boy, raises a question of responsibility that should arouse public sentiment to the great evil of law defiance.

From the testimony of two witnesses in the death dealing car it appears that Smith, who is held for manslaughter, and his companions procured moonshine in a joint on Sixth avenue north, about which there have been complaints for some time. They then secured more of the poison, according to these witnesses, from a farm house, near the Heim mill, and then began speeding on the paved highway near Sartell.

The witnesses stated that while Smith was taking a drink one of the others held the steering wheel, while the car was traveling at high speed. Smith, according to the witnesses, was so much under the influence of the liquor that the car traveled from side to side of the road, finally running down the boy and killing him instantly. This did not stop Smith, who tried to escape.

Smith, when sober, would have done none of these things. The booze he had purchased from two men who were violating the law, was a deadly factor in the tragedy.

The men who sold the moonshine to Smith were contributors to the killing.

The question is, what will be done about it? Public sentiment has been altogether too complacent with the violations of the 18th amendment. It requires a tragedy to bring to the comprehension of the individuals and the officials that every moonshine maker and vender is a menace to society.

We too often say, if the fools want to drink it and work their own destruction, the world is well rid of them. But when intoxicated they become a danger to others.

The people of any community can have the law enforced if they are determined to do it. It is certainly time the people of St. Cloud woke up to the danger and cleaned house.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

SINCE the deplorable death of a young Boy Scout, struck and killed by an alleged drunken car driver on the Jefferson Highway near St. Cloud, a strict patrol has been established and drivers exceeding speed limits are being taken in custody.

MANY a true word is spoken in jest. "Judge" comments very sagely that judging by the divorce records, the girls nowadays are being married with demountable wedding rings.

THE Northern Pacific had a fairly good year in 1923. Its net income ran near $13,000,000. Profits for two months in 1924 are said to have been close to $2,000,000.

Lisbon, N. D., April 10.—Ray Craig, former official of the Ransom County Farmers bank, arrested in Florida and returned here to face charges of embezzlement, was arraigned on that charge late yesterday and gave $1,500 bail to appear at a later term of court. As soon as he was released on the embezzlement charge Craig was re-arrested on a charge of falsifying the accounts of the bank and placed in jail again.

A hearing on the latter charge was scheduled late today.

Muscle and Control Make Every Goal

ENERGY, strong muscles and steady nerves not only win the goals in football but all the other goals in life. And children have an excellent start toward making these goals when the foods they are served contain the elements which build and store up bodily energy and strong health.

The food element, Dextrose, which your doctor can tell you gives vigor and stamina to blood cells and tissue, is of utmost importance to growing children. And because Karo—either Blue Label or Red Label—contains such a large percentage of Dextrose, it is a most valuable food for them. They like the delicious tempting flavor, too.

THERE is another factor in town development, which in the "Buy at Home" movement includes the trade of women of a city, something which amounts to quite a large total. The difficult part in the consideration of this phase of trading is that the average husband finds it a matter of considerable diplomacy when he attempts to tell his wife what to do in purchasing her personal wardrobe.

It is an important item of home trading, that the whole household be made loyal to a city. The Dispatch gives publicity to this question by revealing the observations of one qualified to speak on women's trade.

A saleswoman, who has served the women of Brainerd in that capacity for several years, was discussing the present business situation and said among other things:

"I simply cannot understand why so many Brainerd women look at what Brainerd stores offer but go to the cities and make their purchases. Men talk about doing things to make Brainerd bigger and better, but the wives of many of them take enough business out of town to make all stores prosperous.

"I watch too, to see what they buy and I cannot see where they improve on what the stores of Brainerd offer to them.

"Why should the wife or daughter of any man who makes his living in Brainerd go to the 'cities' to spend the money which Brainerd produces? They seem mighty disloyal to me. We stand here and wait, our boss is harassed to meet his bills and yet the business which would make us happy and prosperous is sent out of town.

"They say women don't know much about business but I am thinking that the stores Brainerd has should at least be given an opportunity to sell these people what they want before they send their Brainerd earned money out of town. Why, the last customer I waited on told me of the many women on her street who went to the cities to buy their coats and hats this year—many of them merchants' wives too at that.

"Maybe I am wrong, but it ought to be a matter for an apology for a woman to say, 'I got it in the cities.' I don't wonder that the boss is discouraged for he certainly has the right styles and the prices are right and other stores have good things too.

"No, I don't mind if you put what I've said in the paper, but don't tell who I am. I like these women but they are making such a mistake. I wouldn't say what I have said but women don't realize how much it costs Brainerd to have them talk about 'shopping in the cities,' and too I notice that it is the earnings of the Brainerd business men which are liberally subscribed for Boy Scouts, better cattle, tourist camp and other things which makes Brainerd better. Out of town merchants don't do it for us. Then, too, I notice that it's Brainerd business men who get out and hustle to put across the things which make us proud of Brainerd. Surely these men should have the support of all."

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE?

THE tragedy in St. Cloud Sunday, costing the life of a fine young boy, raises a question of responsibility that should arouse public sentiment to the great evil of law defiance.

From the testimony of two witnesses in the death dealing car it appears that Smith, who is held for manslaughter, and his companions procured moonshine in a joint on Sixth avenue north, about which there have been complaints for some time. They then secured more of the poison, according to these witnesses, from a farm house, near the Heim mill, and then began speeding on the paved highway near Sartell.

The witnesses stated that while Smith was taking a drink one of the others held the steering wheel, while the car was traveling at high speed. Smith, according to the witnesses, was so much under the influence of the liquor that the car traveled from side to side of the road, finally running down the boy and killing him instantly. This did not stop Smith, who tried to escape.

Smith, when sober, would have done none of these things. The booze he had purchased from two men who were violating the law, was a deadly factor in the tragedy.

The men who sold the moonshine to Smith were contributors to the killing.

The question is, what will be done about it?

Public sentiment has been altogether too complacent with the violations of the 18th amendment. It requires a tragedy to bring to the comprehension of the individuals and the officials that every moonshine maker and vender is a menace to society.

We too often say, if the fools want to drink it and work their own destruction, the world is well rid of them. But when intoxicated they become a danger to others.

The people of any community can have the law enforced if they are determined to do it. It is certainly time the people of St. Cloud woke up to the danger and cleaned house.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

SINCE the deplorable death of a young Boy Scout, struck and killed by an alleged drunken car driver on the Jefferson Highway near St. Cloud, a strict patrol has been established and drivers exceeding speed limits are being taken in custody.

MANY a true word is spoken in jest. "Judge" comments very sagely that judging by the divorce records, the girls nowadays are being married with demountable wedding rings.

To be up to date now, every government must have a crisis or two. The latest to fall in line is down at Cape Town, where Premier Jan Smuts and his cabinet have resigned.

THE Northern Pacific had a fairly good year in 1923. Its net income ran near $13,000,000. Profits for two months in 1924 are said to have been close to $2,000,000.

It is claimed that Maurice, the great dancer, is getting so bald that it is affecting his nerves and may even put a tinge of sadness in his dancing steps.

THERE will be no dearth of candidates in the coming election in Minnesota.

RURAL TEACHERS
HERE FRIDAY

Will Combine Their Evening Meeting
With Oratorical Contest at High School

TEACHERS PROGRAM FIRST
Saturday Morning the Annual Spelling Contest for Rural Pupils
Will be Held

The rural teachers association of Crow Wing county has its spring meeting scheduled for Friday evening, and since the same evening is taken by the oratorical contest between Brainerd, Staples, Little Falls and Crosby, the two events will be combined and held in the local high school.

The teachers program will be staged first. O. M. Wavvig, Deerwood banker, will speak on the proposed changes in the United States Constitution. Officials from the state department of education will be George Selke, state inspector of rural schools, and Miss Anne Swenson, supervisor of rural schools.

This is the annual meeting of the rural teachers association, and will be largely attended, practically every school in the county being represented.

The teachers will also hold an afternoon session at the court house, consisting of their regular business meeting and a short program.

On Saturday morning the annual spelling contest will be held, for rural school children only. Leon Lum gives a prize of $10 annually for the winner in this contest. Three of the rural schools have also taken up the St. Paul Dispatch spelling contest, and the students in these three schools will take their test on Saturday morning also.

Following the teachers' program on Friday evening, the oratorical contest will be held. The judges were selected from cities and towns not interested in the contest, to insure strict neutrality. They are Miss Anne Swenson and George Selke, from the state department of education, and R. G. Harte banker, of Pe-quot. Much enthusiasm has been aroused over this contest between the cities whose schools are participating. The winner goes to St.
Cloud on April 25th to participate in the district elimination contest.

it, which this youthful organization will present on Friday evening at the New Park theatre.

The band, under the direction of Hugo Pflock, has been working very hard on its program, and those who attend the concert are promised a real treat and a pleasant surprise in the numbers that will be presented.
One of these, the "B. B. B. March," was written by Mr. Pflock especially for this occasion, and is dedicated to the Brainerd Lions club, which organization sponsored the band and gave it its start.

A matinee for school children only, will be staged on Friday afternoon at 4:15. Tickets for this performance are 10c and will not be accepted at the evening concert.

The proceeds from these concerts are to be used for the financing the boys band, purchasing instruments,

PROMISCUOUS
BRUSH BURNING

State Law Covering Such Practices
is Herewith
Quoted

PUNISHMENT FOR VIOLATION

Heavy Fine or Imprisonment Meted
Out to Convicted
Offenders

It has been brought to the attention of the forest ranger, that there has been promiscuous burning of brush, dead grass etc., and the state law covering such practice is quoted herewith:

Section 1. State Forester to issue fire permits. It shall be unlawful, when the ground is not snow-covered, in those portions of the state of Minnesota where there are standing or growing native coniferous trees, or in areas of ground from which native coniferous trees have been cut, or where there are slashings of such trees, or native brush, timber, slashings thereof, or excavated stumps, or where there is peat or peat roots, excavated or growing, to start or have any open fire except for domestic purposes and to protect persons or property in case of fire, without the written permission of the state forester or other authorized forest officer, unless a fire-break shall have been freshly made or plowed around the place or area wherein said fire is set.

Section 2. Conditions and restrictions. Permission to set fire to any grass, stubble, peat, brush, slash or woods for the purpose of clearing and improving land or preventing other fire shall be given whenever the same may be safely burned, upon such reasonable conditions and restrictions as the state forester may prescribe to prevent same from spreading and getting beyond control. Such permission shall be in the form of a written permit signed by a regular forest officer or a member of the town board to be designated by the state forester as township fire warden, said permits to be on blanks furnished by the state forester. Provided, however, that the forester or any of his assistants or the township fire warden may at his discretion in cases of extreme danger, refuse, revoke or postpone the use of permits to burn when such act is clearly necessary for the safety of life and property.

Section 3. Punishment for violation. Any person or corporation violating any of the foregoing provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days.

CHECKING ASSETS OF
BRAINERD STATE BANK

Work on the checking of the assets and liabilities of the Brainerd
State bank, which closed its doors on Monday, is to be pushed forward as rapidly as possible, according to Frank T. Artig, state bank examiner, who is in charge of the task. This will require the balance of the week to complete, it is thought.

The county of Crow Wing had on deposit at the time the bank closed, $39,000, it is said, and the city of Brainerd had on deposit $14,036.34.
The latter is covered by an indemnity bond and the former by individual bonds, it is reported.

There are many local organizations that used the bank as their depositories, some having bonds, others without such security. Among the latter class is the ladies aid of the Methodist church, which is said to have had about two hundred dollars on deposit.

Bank officials have made no statement as to what course will be followed or what policy adopted. H.
E. Kunder, cashier, is recovering from his accident of Monday morning, when he was overcome by carbon monoxide gas from his automobile engine, but is not well enough to leave the house or attend to any business matters. Carl Zapffe, president of the bank, is just recovering from a two-week's illness, and is unable to give any attention to the bank's affairs.

RURAL TEACHERS HERE FRIDAY

Will Combine Their Evening Meeting
With Oratorical Contest at High School

TEACHERS PROGRAM FIRST

Saturday Morning the Annual Spelling Contest for Rural Pupils Will be Held

The rural teachers association of Crow Wing county has its spring meeting scheduled for Friday evening, and since the same evening is taken by the oratorical contest between Brainerd, Staples, Little Falls and Crosby, the two events will be combined and held in the local high school.

The teachers program will be staged first. O. M. Wamvig, Deerwood banker, will speak on the proposed changes in the United States Constitution. Officials from the state department of education will be George Selke, state inspector of rural schools, and Miss Anne Swenson, supervisor of rural schools.

This is the annual meeting of the rural teachers association, and will be largely attended, practically every school in the county being represented.

The teachers will also hold an afternoon session at the court house, consisting of their regular business meeting and a short program.

On Saturday morning the annual spelling contest will be held, for rural school children only. Leon Lum gives a prize of $10 annually for the winner in this contest. Three of the rural schools have also taken up the St. Paul Dispatch spelling contest, and the students in these three schools will take their test on Saturday morning also.

Following the teachers' program on Friday evening, the oratorical contest will be held. The judges were selected from cities and towns not interested in the contest, to insure strict neutrality. They are Miss Anne Swenson and George Selke, from the state department of education, and R. G. Harte banker, of Pequot. Much enthusiasm has been aroused over this contest between the cities whose schools are participating. The winner goes to St. Cloud on April 25th to participate in the district elimination contest.

ACCEPTS BRAINERD CALL

Rev. Alexander G. Patterson Takes Pastorate of 1st Presbyterian Church

Rev. Alexander G. Patterson, of the First Presbyterian church and George Hess were in attendance upon the Red River Presbytery at Pequot Falls yesterday. The Presbytery extended a call to Rev. Patterson from the First Presbyterian church in Brainerd, which he accepted.

Rev. Patterson will remove his family to Brainerd the first of next week from Minneapolis, and will begin the work of the pastorate immediately. He has been here temporarily since December 1 and has familiarized himself with conditions, and is now well acquainted with his field.

He believes that with the united support of the congregation that he can greatly increase the sphere of influence and good work and calls upon every member of his congregation to unite in the work.

TRACY MAN HAS STREET CAR ACCIDENT

Chicago, April 10.—S. R. Sicks, 60, of Tracy, Minn., was crushed between two surface line cars early today and is in a serious condition in St. Luke's hospital.

His most serious injury is a fracture of the skull.

Sicks was identified by means of a cashier's check from the Walnut Grove bank, of Minnesota, found on his person. Authorities are endeavoring to communicate with relatives in Tracy.

NOTICE

The City Council will receive bids at its regular meeting April 21st, 1924 at 8 p. m. on the construction of a curb extending along the east and north property lines of the city hall site. Plans and specifications are on file in the office of the city engineer. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

BAND PROGRAM FRIDAY EVENING

Exceptionally Good Program to be Presented by Juvenile Band at
The New Park Theatre

HUGO PFLOCK CONDUCTOR

Burlesque on "The Village Band"
Will Offer an Unusual Diversion, Cast Given

The members of the Brainerd Boys Band is looking forward with much anticipation to the concert or "Musical Evening" as they prefer to call it, which this youthful organization will present on Friday evening at the New Park theatre.

The band, under the direction of Hugo Pflock, has been working very hard on its program, and those who attend the concert are promised a real treat and a pleasant surprise in the numbers that will be presented. One of these, the "B. B. B. March" was written by Mr. Pflock especially for this occasion, and is dedicated to the Brainerd Lions club, which organization sponsored the band and gave it its start.

A matinee for school children only, will be staged on Friday afternoon at 4:15. Tickets for this performance are 10c and will not be accepted at the evening concert.

The proceeds from these concerts are to be used for the financing the boys band, purchasing instruments, music library, etc. and is a worthy cause to which the public will be glad to support.

Following is the program in detail:

- The Program for the Evening
1. "The Home Town Band," march by E. Weidt.
 2. "The Trail to Long Ago," valse lente by H. Klieckmann.
 3. "Overture Debutante," by F. A. Myers.
 4. (a) "Dance Joyeuse" by E. Avon. (b) "Spring Song" by Mendelssohn. Clarinet solos played by Elmer Peterson.
 5. (a) "I am That Guy." (b) "The Clock is Playing." Two songs by Arden Miller.
 6. "Our Village Band" by L. E. Johnson. A one act novelty.
 7. Saxophone solos. (a) Serenade from Les Millions d'Arlequin. R. Driga. (b) "Swinging Time," Valse de Concert, Ben Vereecken.

PROMISCUOUS BRUSH BURNING

State Law Covering Such Practices
is Herewith
Quoted

PUNISHMENT FOR VIOLATION

Heavy Fine or Imprisonment Meted
Out to Convicted
Offenders

It has been brought to the attention of the forest ranger, that there has been promiscuous burning of brush, dead grass etc., and the state law covering such practice is quoted herewith:

Section 1. State Forester to issue fire permits. It shall be unlawful, when the ground is not snow-covered, in those portions of the state of Minnesota where there are standing or growing native coniferous trees, or in areas of ground from which native coniferous trees have been cut, or where there are slashings of such trees, or native brush, timber, slashings thereof, or excavated stumps, or where there is peat or peat roots, excavated or growing, to start or have any open fire except for domestic purposes and to protect persons or property in case of fire, without the written permission of the state forester or other authorized forest officer, unless a fire-break shall have been freshly made or plowed around the place or area wherein said fire is set.

Section 2. Conditions and restrictions. Permission to set fire to any grass, stubble, peat, brush, slash or woods for the purpose of clearing and improving land or preventing other fire shall be given whenever the same may be safely burned, upon such reasonable conditions and restrictions as the state forester may prescribe to prevent same from spreading and getting beyond control. Such permission shall be in the form of a written permit signed by a regular forest officer or a member of the town board to be designated by the state forester as township fire warden, said permits to be on blanks furnished by the state forester. Provided, however, that the forester or any of his assistants or the township fire warden may at his discretion in cases of extreme danger, refuse, revoke or postpone the use of permits to burn when such act is clearly necessary for the safety of life and property.

Section 3. Punishment for violation. Any person or corporation violating any of the foregoing provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days.

CHECKING ASSETS OF BRAINERD STATE BANK

Work on the checking of the assets and liabilities of the Brainerd State bank, which closed its doors on Monday, is to be pushed forward as rapidly as possible, according to Frank T. Artig, state bank examiner, who is in charge of the task. This will require the balance of the week to complete, it is thought.

The county of Crow Wing had on deposit at the time the bank closed, $39,000, it is said, and the city of Brainerd had on deposit $14,036.34. The latter is covered by an indemnity bond and the former by individual bonds, it is reported.

There are many local organizations that used the bank as their depositories, some having bonds, others without such security. Among the latter class is the ladies aid of the Methodist church, which is said to have had about two hundred dollars on deposit.

Bank officials have made no statement as to what course will be followed or what policy adopted. H. E. Kunder, cashier, is recovering from his accident of Monday morning, when he was overcome by carbon monoxide gas from his automobile engine, but is not well enough to leave the house or attend to any business matters. Carl Zapffe, president of the bank, is just recovering from a two-week's illness, and is unable to give any attention to the bank's affairs.

FARRELL SEES CLOSE RACE IN NATIONAL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 10.—After he had visited the Florida training camps of the eight National League clubs training there, John A. Heydler, president of the league, expressed a qualified opinion that three teams had a good chance to beat out the New York Giants in the pennant race.

The Cincinnati Reds, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals were classed as the most dangerous competitors of the three-time champions, and the Chicago Cubs and the Boston Braves were ranked as formidable.

Heydler said that the strength in his league was more evenly divided than he had seen it in years and that he looked for a blanket race from start to finish.

Six clubs in the league have inherited enough strength from last season or added enough power since the close of the season to make it apparent almost that there will be no centralization of strength in two or three clubs that would make it a one-sided race.

It was quite obvious at the close of the 1923 season, when the Giants rallied and smashed through to their third straight pennant on their last invasion of the west, that the 1924 pennant would go to the club that succeeded best in strengthening itself during the off-season.

The Giants, it was the unanimous opinion, were not strong enough to win their fourth straight championship with what was left when they retired beaten from the field in the world's series.

It was just as reasonable to assume, however, that the Cincinnati Reds needed a little bit more to do a lot better than they did in 1923 if they were to upset the Giants.

The Reds, since then, have been improving greatly. The Giants have made several gestures at reorganization, and the Boston Braves have been most vitally transformed.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals have assumed an experiment with new shortstops, but the Chicago Cubs have stood fast. The Brooklyn Robins have picked up a new shortstop, but they needed more than an infield to make the team. The Phils act like they know they are out of it and "what's the use."

The Reds picked up two of the best minor league pitchers in the game when they bought Jake May from the Vernon Pacific Coast League team and Tom Sheehan from the St. Paul American Association team. They also bought Carl Mays from the New York Yankees and they are after Charley Dressen, the high-touted St. Paul third baseman.

AMUSEMENTS

"Only 38" Scores Big Hit at Lyceum

Scoring a decided hit, "Only 38," William de Mille's new Paramount picture production, featuring May McAvoy, Lois Wilson, Elliott Dexter and George Fawcett, was shown at the Lyceum Theatre last night. There is a laugh, sigh or tear in every scene of this splendid comedy-romance which has its last showing tonight.

The story is that of a widowed mother, thirty-eight years old, who longs for romance. Her twin son and daughter are shocked when she accepts the attentions of Prof. Chas. Giddings (Elliott Dexter) and they do not hesitate to tell their mother so. To Mrs. Stanley it is a case of making a choice between her love of her children and the professor, who opens up an entirely new life to her. She chooses the former, but in the end the mother's eyes are opened by her daughter's love affair and thus the way is paved to happiness for both.

Ben Alexander in "Boy of Mine" at New Park Saturday and Sunday

"Boy of Mine," produced by J. K. McDonald for First National, is from the pen of Booth Tarkington, and centers about a child, and, while it is highly amusing to children, it is of even more appeal to adults. It is a human interest drama with a range of appeal that covers picture-goers of all ages. Tarkington has so cleverly built the story that children can focus eyes and thoughts on the actions of the juveniles and adults can look upon the child artists as merely incidental to the building of a great plot.

Senator Wheeler, Montana, was started from two angles today.

Senator Cummins, Iowa, presiding officer of the senate, named the committee which will ascertain for itself the facts concerning the charges against Wheeler.

Cummins put at the head of the committee Senator Borah of Idaho, his selection being generally applauded, as assuring not only a thorough inquiry, but a completely impartial one.

Shortly before the Borah committee was named, the Brookhart committee investigating Daugherty began to look into the Wheeler case and from William J. Burns and an employee of the company got evidence that the republican national committee and Daugherty both were fully informed of the proceedings against Wheeler.

HERE is a car priced at $1,045. Built by ordinary methods it would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

It is in scores of ways the leader of its class. No rival car compares in the value that it offers.

Let us tell you how we give that value, then urge you to see this car.

A sensation

Studebaker is today the world's largest builder of quality cars. Studebaker success is the sensation of Motordom.

Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year, 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

There are tremendous reasons for this rush to Studebaker cars. And every man who buys a car should know them.

72-year traditions

The Studebaker name has for 72 years stood for quality and class. To build an ordinary car under that name is unthinkable.

Our assets are $90,000,000—all at stake on serving you better than all others.

We have $50,000,000 in model plants, equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines. We have 23,000 workers, under profit-sharing plans which lead them to stay and develop.

We spend on engineering $500,000 yearly. We employ 1,200 men to give 32,000 inspections to each Studebaker car in the making.

We are lavish

We are lavish in things that count.

We pay 15% bonus on some steels to get them exactly right. We use genuine leather in our cushions. We use curled hair.

We use more Timken bearings in this Light-Six than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Our bodies are beautiful creations. The finish and coach work show the final touch. But we build them in $10,000,000 body plants of our own, and pay for these extras in savings.

Where we save

We save by enormous production—150,000 cars per year. Our major costs are all divided by that enormous output. It is utterly impossible for smaller makers to compete.

We save by modern plants, mostly built in the past five years. We save by up-to-date machines. By building our own parts and bodies.

See what this car offers

Come see what this Light-Six offers. How it excels in scores of ways any rival car.

Built with the same steels, the same care and skill, as the costliest of our cars. We have only one grade of chassis.

See its beauty, its comfort, its luxury. See how we have studied your every desire.

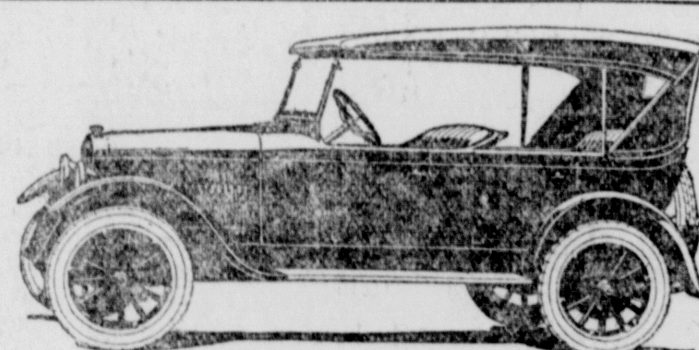

Do that and you will choose this car, if you have in mind a price anywhere near this.

Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car—$1,045

Same steels as we use in the costliest cars we build. More Timken bearings than in any competitive car within $1,500 of this price.

Genuine leather cushions, ten inches deep. Curled hair filling. All-steel body.

One-piece, rain-proof windshield. Attractive cowl lights. Standard non-skid cord tires.

Transmission and ignition locks. Perfect motor balance. Curtains that open with the doors.

By far the greatest value in this class.

FARRELL SEES CLOSE RACE IN NATIONAL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 10.—After he has visited the Florida training camps of the eight National League clubs training there, John A. Heydler, president of the league, expressed a qualified opinion that three teams had a good chance to beat out the New York Giants in the pennant race.

The Cincinnati Reds, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals were classed as the most dangerous competitors of the three-time champions, and the Chicago Cubs and the Boston Braves were ranked as formidable.

Heydler said that the strength in his league was more evenly divided than he had seen it in years and that he looked for a blanket race from start to finish.

Six clubs in the league have inherited enough strength from last season or added enough power since the close of the season to make it apparent almost that there will be no centralization of strength in two or three clubs that would make it a one-sided race.

It was quite obvious at the close of the 1923 season, when the Giants rallied and smashed through to their third straight pennant on their last invasion of the west, that the 1924 pennant would go to the club that succeeded best in strengthening itself during the off-season.

The Giants, it was the unanimous opinion, were not strong enough to win their fourth straight championship with what was left when they retired beaten from the field in the world's series.

It was just as reasonable to assume, however, that the Cincinnati Reds needed a little bit more to do a lot better than they did in 1923 if they were to upset the Giants.

The Reds, since then, have been improving greatly. The Giants have made several gestures at reorganization, and the Boston Braves have been most vitally transformed.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals have assumed an experiment with new shortstops, but the Chicago Cubs have stood fast. The Brooklyn Robins have picked up a new shortstop, but they needed more than an infield to make the team. The Phils act like they know they are out of it and "what's the use."

The Reds picked up two of the best minor league pitchers in the game when they bought Jake May from the Vernon Pacific Coast League team and Tom Sheehan from the St. Paul American Association team. They also bought Carl Mays from the New York Yankees and they are after Charley Dresen, the high-touted St. Paul third baseman.

AMUSEMENTS

"Only 38" Scores Big Hit at Lyceum

Scoring a decided hit, "Only 38," William de Mille's new Paramount picture production, featuring May McAvoy, Lois Wilson, Elliott Dexter and George Fawcett, was shown at the Lyceum Theatre last night. There is a laugh, sigh or tear in every scene of this splendid comedy-romance which has its last showing tonight.

The story is that of a widowed mother, thirty-eight years old, who longs for romance. Her twin son and daughter are shocked when she accepts the attentions of Prof. Chas. Giddings (Elliott Dexter) and they do not hesitate to tell their mother so. To Mrs. Stanley it is a case of making a choice between her love of her children and the professor, who opens up an entirely new life to her. She chooses the former, but in the end the mother's eyes are opened by her daughter's love affair and thus the way is paved for happiness for both.

Ben Alexander in "Boy of Mine" at New Park Saturday and Sunday

"Boy of Mine," produced by J. K. McDonald for First National, is from the pen of Booth Tarkington, and centers about a child, and, while it is highly amusing to children, it is of even more appeal to adults. It is a human interest drama with a range of appeal that covers picture-goers of all ages. Tarkington has so cleverly built the story that children can focus eyes and thoughts on the actions of the juveniles and adults can look upon the child artists as merely incidental to the building of a great plot.

Margaret Morris, beautiful Minneapolis society girl, chosen by the Wampas (Western Motion Picture Advertisers) as one of the "Thirteen Baby Stars" for 1924, plays opposite Jack Hoxie in his latest Universal Western feature, "The Galloping Ace," coming Friday and Saturday to the Lyceum Theatre. Miss Morris has been featured by Universal in several chapterplays and short reel Westerns.

Senator Wheeler, Montana, was started from two angles today.

Senator Cummins, Iowa, presiding officer of the senate, named the committee which will ascertain for itself the facts concerning the charges against Wheeler.

Cummins put at the head of the committee Senator Borah of Idaho, his selection being generally applauded, as assuring not only a thorough inquiry, but a completely impartial one.

Shortly before the Borah committee was named, the Brookhart committee investigating Daugherty began to look into the Wheeler case and from William J. Burns and an employee of the company got evidence that the republican national committee and Daugherty both were fully informed of the proceedings against Wheeler.
